

Applicant Name	Project Title	Project Description	Matching Funds	Total Federal Amount
California Marine Sanctuary Foundation (Monterey)	Integrating Multicultural Environmental Education in Extended Learning Programs	The MERITO Academy will provide culturally diverse and under represented 5th-8th graders the opportunity to participate in year round, meaningful in-class and outdoor experiences at natural sites, scientists, and experts. Additionally, 20 teachers will participate in the MERITO Watershed Academy Training Workshop.	$401,859	$59,784
Carmel Unified School District (Monterey)	Ocean Connections	Meaningful outdoor activities for 750 CUSD students and 750 students from the underserved areas of Monterey County through on-going science classes, special block scheduling days, ocean-based restoration projects, a 3 day Ocean Literacy Institute, during and after- school programming, weekend ocean and watershed explorations, day-long Biodiversity Camps.	$92,075	$55,000
Chuck Haugen Conservation Fund (Monterey)	Beach Garden Project: Habitat Restoration with Students on Monterey Dunes Parklands	The Beach Garden Project will teach restoration skills (seed collecting, propagation, outplanting, and monitoring) to 300 students and 10 teachers at public parks around the Monterey Bay.	$7,100	$34,700
Coastal Watershed Council (Santa Cruz)	Get Outdoors! (GO!)	The program will deliver meaningful watershed educational experiences in and out of the classroom to 450 students from Landmark Elementary School in Watsonville.	$39,250	$58,594
Exploring New Horizons (Santa Cruz)	An Opportunity to Attend Environmental Education Camp and become environmental stewards.	This project will provide 6th grade students from underserved communities with a Meaningful Outdoor Experience. The students will attend a five-day environmental education program that educates and inspires them to become stewards of their environment.	$43,274	$53,323

Applicant Name	Project Title	Project Description	Matching Funds	Total Federal Amount
Farallones Marine Sanctuary Association (San Mateo)	Developing a community of Sanctuary stewards in San Mateo County through a growing network of marine educators.	This program provides a series of opportunities for teachers to learn about the intertidal ecosystem of the San Mateo County coastline, gain training in the LiMPETS program, and encourages teachers in incorporate ocean sciences in classrooms.	$80,564	$57,237
Friends of MAOS (Monterey)	MAOS Monterey Bay Runoff Mitigation and Restoration Projects	Monterey Academy of Oceanographic Sciences (MAOS) students will select sites along specific a creeks and canyons in Monterey (Iris Canyon, Aguajito and Hartnell Creeks) for pollution runoff mitigation, restoration and monitoring.	$30,764	$48,369
Santa Cruz County Resource Conservation District (Santa Cruz)	The Watershed Cruzin' Teacher Program	Teachers from Santa Cruz County will participate in workshops to introduce and train teachers to use the Watershed Cruzin' curriculum. Six teachers will implement a year-long field program with watershed activities both in the classroom and in the field.	$16,088	$48,595
The Foundation of California State University, Monterey Bay (Monterey)	Outdoor Science School: Collaborating with teachers to provide unique academically based meaningful watershed experiences.	Camp Sea Lab will provide a ocean/coastal science based experiential program to 600 students and teachers from 8 schools. The program will emphasize watersheds, coasts, oceans, scientific process and research, conservation, culture and history and careers/ educational pathways.	$22,306	$40,411
The Foundation of California State University, Monterey Bay (Monterey)	Professional Development for Creeks of Salinas to the Bay	This project will provide 3rd through 5th grade teachers in Salinas with training workshops, in-class mentoring, classroom lessons and field trip opportunities to the creeks of Salinas.	$37,444	$60,000
The Foundation of California State University, Monterey Bay (Monterey)	Increasing Watershed Awareness in Youth through the Cycle of Habitat Restoration	Students in the MPUSD and the MERITO program will participate in watershed and restoration activities to increase knowledge and awareness of the Monterey Bay area, watersheds and ocean.	$9,128	$57,116

Applicant Name	Project Title	Project Description	Matching Funds	Total Federal Amount
Ecology Action of Santa Cruz County (Santa Cruz)	Adult Learning through the 'Our Water Our World' Program	Preventing pollution to MBNMS watersheds through engaging and educating consumers and store employees about retail pesticides and fertilizers, IPM, and watersheds.	$118,960	$49,690
San Mateo Resource Conservation District (San Mateo)	It Takes a Community to Care For A Watershed	Provide watershed stewardship oportunities for citizens through participation in water quality monitoring of local watersheds and Walk-n-Talk programs.	0	$35,280