

Citizen-at-Large (CAL):

- reside in the area affected by the proposed sanctuary;
- proven ability to communicate with members in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- experience and/or knowledge regarding marine or Great Lakes management and resource protection issues in the proposed sanctuary;
- experience and/or knowledge regarding public uses and activities in the proposed sanctuary; and
- freedom to express views and cast votes without consideration of any expectations held by an employer or other organization with which the member is affiliated.

Divers/Dive Clubs/Shipwreck Exploration:

- affiliation with divers, dive clubs, and shipwreck exploration organizations active in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- ability to effectively communicate with divers, dive clubs, maritime archaeologists, and the broader community of shipwreck exploration including scientists and researchers; and
- experience, ability, and availability to conduct outreach within the diving and maritime archaeology community.

Economic Development:

- familiarity and affiliation with local businesses in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- understanding of the links between local business, proposed sanctuary resources, and human activities; and
- ability and willingness to communicate with key representatives from local businesses.

Education:

- affiliation with educational institutions or organizations active in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- ability to effectively communicate with multiple institutions and educators; and
- experience, ability, and availability to conduct educational outreach with the education community.

Maritime History and Interpretation:

- affiliation with maritime and interpretive organizations active in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- ability to effectively communicate with multiple organizations and the broader community of maritime historians in the proposed sanctuary region;
- familiarity with marine or Great Lakes conservation issues and management approaches affecting the proposed sanctuary; and

- experience working with or representing maritime history and interpretive organizations, especially those involved with marine or Great Lakes conservation.

Recreational Fishing:

- familiarity and affiliation with recreational fishing organizations active in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- knowledge of recreational fishing activities within the proposed sanctuary region;
- breadth of experience and knowledge regarding fisheries law, policies, and practices affecting the proposed sanctuary; and
- ability and willingness to communicate with key representatives from the recreational fishing industries.

Recreational Boating:

- familiarity and affiliation with recreational boating organizations active in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- knowledge of recreational boating activities within the proposed sanctuary region;
- breadth of experience and knowledge regarding recreational boating laws, policies, and practices affecting the proposed sanctuary; and
- ability and willingness to communicate with key representatives from recreational boating industries.

Shoreline Property Owner:

- reside or own property on the shoreline in the area affected by the proposed sanctuary;
- proven ability to communicate with members in communities near the proposed sanctuary;
- experience and/or knowledge regarding marine or Great Lakes management and resource protection issues in the proposed sanctuary;
- experience and/or knowledge regarding public uses and activities in the proposed sanctuary; and
- freedom to express views and cast votes without consideration of any expectations held by an employer or other organization with which the member is affiliated.

Tourism:

- familiarity and affiliation with the tourism industry in communities near the proposed sanctuary,
- understanding of the links between tourism, sanctuary resources, and human activities; and
- ability and willingness to communicate with key representatives from local businesses.